

10 Things to Know

ABOUT THE ADA

01

Disability is common.

02

The ADA protects people from disability discrimination.

03

People with many different kinds of disabilities are protected by the ADA.

04

The ADA covers people in many areas of life.

05

Many websites and other types of technology must be accessible.

06

New and altered buildings must meet minimum accessibility standards.

07

Workers with disabilities must be able to do the job, with or without reasonable accommodations.

08

Service animals are allowed under the ADA.

09

The ADA is enforced by federal agencies or by private lawsuits.

10

A national network of regional centers helps people understand the ADA.

Do you have an ADA question?

The ADA National Network can help. Visit www.adata.org, call 1-800-949-4232, or send a message at www.adata.org/email.

