

DVDS

Accommodating Employees with Disabilities
This program shows common examples of how to recognize and respond to requests for job accommodations in familiar job settings. Additional resources included on this DVD provide ideas on how to access the full potential of your workforce. $24.95

Getting it Right - Etiquette Tips
This training DVD on disability etiquette covers various disabilities such as mobility, hearing, speech, vision and others. Six scenes are included that highlight interaction with people with various disabilities. $99.00

Good Access is Good Business
In this program, several business owners who operate for-profit businesses on public lands discuss the financial benefits of providing physical and program access to recreation for people with disabilities. Lengthier interviews with additional business owners are included in the additional information section. $19.95

Invisible Voices Performance
Invisible Voices captures the compelling stage show providing a window into the complex worlds of six individuals who have adapted to their disabilities. This riveting presentation will forever transform what you think of when you hear the word disability. $29.95

Reflections on a Promise
This program examines not only the history of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), but also considers what the Act has accomplished and how all Americans can help build on its successes. Reflections on a Promise features eloquent commentary from some of America's foremost disability rights advocates. $29.95

TRAINING MATERIALS

ADA Quiz Book 3rd Edition
The ADA Quiz Book 3rd Edition is a collection of puzzles, questions, and scenarios about the ADA and disability etiquette. $9.95

Disability Law Handbook
The Disability Law Handbook is a 50-page guide to the basics of the ADA and other disability related laws. Published by the DBTAC Southwest ADA Center, a program of ILRU at TIRR Memorial Hermann. $5.00

Existing Facilities Checklist CD-ROM
A practical, how-to training tool that is a must-have for anyone responsible for physical barrier removal requirements of the ADA. This CD walks you through the elements of physical accessibility, with high quality photo examples and instructive audio. $24.95

Ten Tips for Kids - Disability Etiquette
This program is a fun resource for use in any classroom or small group setting for kids K-6. This kit comes with a full color poster and a CD-ROM with a 9 min. video, as well as lesson plans, reproducible tip illustrations, an introduction to person-first language and links to other related resources. $10.00

To order, visit www.adainformation.org/webstore or e-mail products@adainformation.org.

Contact us for quantity discounts.

POSTERS

Barrier-Free Computing
Everyone, including people with disabilities, needs to use computers to participate fully in school, employment, and daily living. This poster shows some ways to make that possible. $4.50

Barrier-Free Employment
The Barrier-Free Employment poster depicts practical strategies for creating an accessible workplace for employees with disabilities. $4.50

Barrier-Free Voting
The Barrier-Free Voting poster depicts practical strategies for providing an accessible voting place for voters with disabilities. $4.50

Children's Sign Language
This colorful poster introduces children to sign language with the ASL alphabet, numbers 1-10 and other child-centric words in sign. $4.50

Disability Etiquette
This poster was designed to help businesses and government agencies train their employees to provide excellent customer service to people with disabilities. $4.50

Good Access is Good Business
This poster promotes the wisdom that a physically accessible building is good for business by including accessible building elements that benefit everyone. $4.50

Sign Language Basics
This colorful poster introduces basic American Sign Language (ASL) and introductory sign language signs. $4.50

Vital Signs
The Vital Signs poster demonstrates sign language appropriate for the medical environment, as well as the alphabet and numbers 1-10. $4.50

POCKET GUIDES

Access to Voting
The Access to Voting Pocket Guide depicts the most common sign language "signs" used in a voting environment. This valuable tool also provides tips to effectively communicate with voters with disabilities. This includes disability etiquette tips, and a polling place "quick look" accessibility checklist. This is an essential tool for anyone interacting with voters. $4.50

All Kids Count: Access to Child Care
This colorful pocket guide provides essential information on ADA requirements for child care centers, considerations for ways to comply with ADA requirements and etiquette tips for interacting with children with disabilities. Perfect for child care centers and child care providers. $4.50

Service Animal Pocket Guide
The Service Animal Pocket Guide will guide you through the Department of Justice's new standards on service animals. Perfect for individuals who use service animals, public accommodations, such as restaurants, hotels, hospitals and retail stores, and state and local government agencies. $4.50

Vital Signs
The Vital Signs Pocket Guide provides essential information about sign language appropriate for all medical practitioners and tips for communicating with people who are deaf or hard-of-hearing. Perfect for hospitals, medical offices, and paramedics. $4.50

To order, visit www.adainformation.org/webstore or e-mail products@adainformation.org.

Contact us for quantity discounts.

